

Auschwitz-Birkenau Camps: More than Jewish History

Join photographer Wilbur Norman as he explores the period 1934 to 1945 and the German systematic policy of forced labor and extermination in the camps, with a special emphasis on how two populations fared: people with disabilities and people of African descent.

In October 2023 I traveled to photograph the Auschwitz-Birkenau Extermination & Work Camps. Most people know the major outlines of the Nazi system of extermination before and during World War II – or, they think they know the gist of this history!
